1. The Head of Department welcomed everybody to the faculty-student interaction and enquired about the well-being of all who were present.

2. The students were asked to approach concerned teachers should there be any doubt in understanding concepts or not able to follow online teaching or in need of more e-resources.
3. The students were informed that all relevant reading materials are uploaded on department website apart from the readings mailed by respective teachers.
4. Since the university has provided access to library e-resources, the students were advised to make full use of facilities provided. Should the students fail to download relevant readings, they are to inform the librarian and copy the email to HOD.
5. All the students took turn to speak. They were satisfied with the online live lectures delivered through Facebook group and discussions via Zoom cloud meeting app. The students have been writing their dissertation and have submitted drafts to their respective supervisors. They were confident that they will be able to submit their dissertation by the end of May.
6. The teachers present in the meeting took turns to encourage and motivate students.
7. The meeting ended with a note of thanks to the Head of Department.
